

He was instrumental in passing the Two-Week-Pay-Day law whereby laborers on public works are paid every two weeks instead of having to wait 30 to 45 days.

He has been so busy with the several Liberty Loans and other war activities that he could give little time to his campaign, and he has asked this paper to tell the voters about him.

He considers "winning the war" the most important duty of every red-blooded

American. He is bending every energy to that end and to him "everything else is chores." He is resting his claims for re-election on that and the record of his services two years ago. He will appreciate your influence and vote. ❀ ❀ ❀

HON. E. C. NORVELL.

Republican nominee for Representative for this district. Carried his home county two years ago by over 300 votes and it is democratic by more than 300 votes.

He labored energetically for the location of the State Reformatory for Boys on the state property, Herbert Domain, and assisted very materially in the passage of the act appropriating $80,000 as a start toward developing that great property as a state reform institution. It will finally result in this county getting about 20 miles of graded and hard surfaced road, that very likely we would not have gotten.

Never has this district been represented by a man who stood higher at home, was cleaner, more able or a more energetic and effective worker than HON. E. C. NORVELL.

A. S. Watson was in from Watson Saturday. Mr. Watson reports the damage by the early frost light.

O. R. Brown of Watson was a county seat visitor Saturday. He says that the Chronicle is a very welcome visitor at his home, so much so that he feels he cannot do without it.

For drilling wells see or write J. H. Graham, Pomona, Tenn. 6-6-11.

Frazier & Self are making a big lot of oil staves on their timber tract on Daddys Creek some nine miles out on the Linary road. They have cut close to 275,000 staves and have shipped over 160,000 and have nearly 100,000 now on the yard. They are running an auto truck day and night. Teams haul the staves to the graded road, a distance of not over a mile and a half, and the auto brings them to town for shipment. J. D. Burkhart is receiving and stacking the staves preparatory to shipping.

At the Chronicle office you can get pen tablets, examination tablets, fountain pen ink in five and ten cent bottles, pocket note books, stenographer's note books, Crane's fine stationery in two-quire boxes and other stationery such as you do not find elsewhere in this county.

Miss Frances Cope went to Chattanooga Friday and will remain a few days as the High School does not open for work this week.

Mrs. G. F. Brookhart arrived from Atlanta, Ga., Sunday after passing some time with her husband, who is with the colors. She was accompanied home by little Miss Cora Lee Keyes, who has been visiting her mother at Alcoa for some weeks.

The rain last week was very welcome as it prepared the ground so farmers can plow for small grain. Plowing had been delayed for some days because of the ground getting very hard. Several persons in this county will sow a small acreage of wheat; some have it up and looking well.

J. Gerardi, of Winchester, has arrived with his family and household goods and moved into the McGuire cottage in the west side of town.

Mrs. Monroe Hyder and son Ora left last week for Hazard, Ky., to visit Mrs. Hyder's daughters, Mrs. C. M. Collins and Miss Estelle.

It frequently happens that people having relatives or friends visiting them from a distance do not take the trouble to notify the Chronicle. It would be little trouble to let the news paper man know and he would be glad and you would at the same time be extending a courtesy to your friend.

Rev. C. L. Sellers of Westerville, Ohio, was here yesterday in the interest of the National Anti-Saloon League. He was arranging for a lecture by Rev. G. M. There will be further mention made in these columns later.

A recent letter received from Miss Elizabeth M. von of the national student training force, Camp Jackson, Columbia, S. C., states that nearly 10,000 victims of influenza have been handled at their hospital, but that the disease is much abated at this time.

Cadet E. H. Snodgrass, of West Point, will graduate this month and be home on a brief furlough before being inducted into the regular army. Owing to the war situation his class is being graduated in less than two years instead of taking the usual four year course.

The time changes next Sunday, turn your clock back one hour Saturday night and you will be right when you get up in the morning.

Who'd a Thought It?

Reform is the work of reason slowly awakening from the lethargy of ignorance, gradually acquiring confidence in her own strength, and ultimately triumphing over the dominion of prejudice and custom.
